

2.0 ATHLETICS

2.1 Participation

.01 Members - Participation in the Athletic Ministry is open to Concord Christian Church members and anyone enrolled in a ministry of Concord Christian Church. Eligibility will depend on willingness to abide by all Activities Center policies and procedures.

.02 Children - A minor must never be left alone without parental or adult oversight. As a Church-wide policy of Concord Christian Church, no child or group of children must ever be left alone at a ministry function or in a Church facility without the minimum of two adult supervisors being present. For additional information, please refer to the Prevention of Children and Youth Abuse policy as found in the Leadership and Management Section of this Policies and Procedures Manual.

.03 Guests - Members may bring guests and are encouraged to do so. These are people brought by a Concord Christian Church member or hosted by a Recreation Ministry member.

.04 Visitors - Individuals who are with outside groups, such as teams from other churches or spectators. They are the responsibility of the church or group with which they came. They must comply with all policies and procedures of Concord Christian Church. Those who fail to comply will be asked to leave.
